ABOUT

I am a new full stack software engineer with an innate talent for finding new and innovative ways to solve problems. In 2008 as a hobby in college, I taught myself through reading books how to code and managed to develop my own giveaway website. I used Facebook to bring traffic to the website and Google Adsense to earn income.

As a Kinesiology major, I never imagined that I could build a career around website development until now. Over the past 13 months with a hope and vision, I've immersed myself in web development and learned various coding languages, built multiple servers, solved countless programming errors, and much more. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to pursue a career in which I can build upon the skills I've acquired and help clients solve some of today's
